Our Cohort Implementation
Teams met on Tuesday,
May 30th.

Our Cohort is composed of all the parishes here on the barrier island: Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Seaside Heights, St. Pio, Lavallette, Sacred Heart, Bay Head, and ourselves. We discussed and tweaked a report due to the Diocesan Implementation Commission by Wednesday, May 31st!

Issues agreed upon include linking our four websites (to become three websites next year after we merge with OLPH in Seaside Heights), and the creation of a "Cohort Corner" in our Bulletins and on our websites. This "Cohort Corner" could include items and events in which all four sites could participate.

It was agreed to host a "Cohort Lenten Parish Mission" during Lent next year, details to be worked out in the future.

All are in favor of continuing support of Simon's Kitchen and the Food Pantry in Seaside Heights.

In regard to our merger with OLPH: thanks to the two individuals who've already volunteered to translate Bulletin and web blurbs into Spanish for us! And, to the one volunteer who offered to join a sub-committee to design a new Parish Bulletin for our upcoming new parish, yet to be named.

Follow updates on our Cohort and upcoming merger in this Bulletin. If you have any questions about our Cohort and/or merger, ask the members of our St. Catharine's Implementation Team: Steve McCarthy, Lois Kapp, Michael Koch, Michelle Miller, or Fr. John.

TO ALL GRADUATES:

We will be recognizing all 2017 graduates at our 9:30am Mass on June 25th. All graduates and their families, and parishioners, are welcome to join us in the Parish Hall afterwards for refreshments.
