Northern Ocean Habitat for Humanity (NOHH) located in Toms River, is a non-profit, Christian, housing ministry offering multiple services, as well as many volunteer opportunities in a variety of areas, including construction, home repair, retail services and fundraising. If interested, please contact the Volunteer Coordinator at 732-228-7962, EXT 110. Organized youth groups are also welcome.

The NOHH ReStore, a major source of our funding, is in the process of relocating to the former Bob Kislin location on Route 37, and features furniture and other home goods at rock bottom prices! Please consider not only shopping at the store, but also donating gently used items. We will be in need of many volunteers to effect the move from our current location at 1201 Lakewood Road to Route 37! Also, NOHH is currently accepting applications for basic home repairs as part of "A Brush with Kindness" program. For more information, call 732-228-7962, Ext 107.
